

THE DAILY STAR

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21

LOCAL BREVITIES.

First day of spring.
MINNIE WOLF, of the "Noodle Factory," has jumped the town.

The "St. Joe," on Vine street, was closed by a constable yesterday.

The foundation walls of Springer Music Hall are being taken down.

CUMMINS, the man shot at Glendale, is in the Cincinnati Hospital.

An unsuccessful attempt at burglary was made early yesterday morning at No. 563 Freeman.

The Trustees of the Southern Railway postponed the consideration of the trustee-work bids to next Friday.

The lion at the Zoo that had his caudal appendage "chewed" up by a hyena is dead—gone to join the monkey.

The Fire Department will be formally transferred to the Board of Police Commissioners on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The little daughter of Mr. Boote, who was so badly bitten by a dog day before yesterday still has a chance of recovery.

The fare-bank of Edwards & Harrison was "busted" last night by Victor Foster, of Cleveland. He made a clean sweep, and pocketed $2,000.

The Republican Committee in private session yesterday voted down a resolution to hold the Convention after that of the Democracy. The Convention will come off Friday at Turner Hall.

The Consolidated Street Railroad Company has concluded to reduce the wages of its employees on the 1st of April. Conductors will receive $1.75 instead of $2, and drivers $1.50 instead of $1.75 per day, as heretofore.

T. F. GAFFNEY, head-baker at the Grand Hotel, was attacked some days ago by highwaymen on Elm street and dangerously hurt. He was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where he rapidly recovered. He is out again on duty to-day.

BENJAMIN LISLE, alias Alex. Johnston, the vanguard who destroyed $500 worth of law books belonging to A. B. Champion, waived an examination on the charge of burglary this morning and was bound over to the Grand Jury. His bond was fixed at $1,500.

E. M. LAWRENCE, of East Walnut Hill, was precipitated together with the elevator at Miller & Son's factory on Seventh street, from the third story to the basement. Mr. Lawrence did not suffer any broken bones, but the internal shock received is dangerous.

LAWRENCE EAGAN, who claims to have come from Cleveland, day before yesterday obtained a pair of horses and a buggy at Westkamp's livery stable, 114 Baymiller street. He drove off, and nothing has been seen since of the man or team.

DENNIS DALY and two other lads, who have been under arrest before, were arrested about 1 o'clock this morning by Officers Martin, Tolstner and Mason, on suspicion of attempting to break into Schultz & Negley's drug store, on Fifth and Main streets. They were brought before the Chief of Police to-day and examined, after which they were locked up.

PETER FOLMER, driver of a wagon filled with sawdust, ran over a little boy named McCoy at the corner of Court and Central avenue last night. The lad, who is but four years old, is supposed to be fatally injured. Folmer was arrested and taken to Ninth-street Station. The case in the Police Court this morning was continued till Saturday, and his bond fixed at $500.

PATRICK O'NEAL, who has spent over seven years of his life in the Work-house for beating his wife, and who was dismissed from that institution but a short time ago, was arraigned this morning on the charge of breaking into the furniture of his wife, and also assaulting her. Judge Lindemann sent him out the road for a stay of twelve months.

The officers of Bremen-street Station have come to the determination to break up the custom of the frail young ladies who promenade around the different variety shows over the Rhine, and insult passers-by with their smutty language. Seven of the foul-mouthed creatures were sent out of the Work-house this morning for ten days each, on the charge of vagrancy. Their names will be found in the docket.

GEORGE MOORE, a colored man, last Saturday evening was engaged by a number of young ladies to play the fiddle for them at a jamboree in Bucktown. When Moore's engagement ended he demanded his money, but instead of the cash he received a thorough whipping. The crowd pounced on him, beat him badly in the face, and finally flung him with a chair. Moore swore out a warrant for the arrest of about a dozen of the rowdies. Officer Tighe yesterday succeeded in catching two of them, Geo. Dudy and John McCullum. Their cases were continued to next Tuesday.

Amusement Notes.

Alt. Burnett's benefit at Robinson's Opera-house Saturday afternoon.

At Grand Opera-house "Lemons" matinee this afternoon and "Lemons" every night this week.

Buffalo Bill Combination in the new drama, "The Red Right Hand." Matinee this afternoon and every night.

Marie T. Courcelles, of the Grand Opera Company, is preparing for publication a translation of Fraga's charming work, "Penelope."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Price, of the Grand Opera-house company, have closed an engagement with Don Boucault to travel with his "Shaughraun" troupe next season. Mr. Price will play "Captain Molineux," and Mrs. Price will take the part of "Moya."

THE BEST STIMULANTS.—A correspondent of the London Lancet, who owns water-power mills, writes: "I am frequently compelled, at this season of the year, to have men working in water even in frosty weather. I find the following allowance gives a great satisfaction to the men, and we never have a case of cold or injury to the men in any way: Kettle of coffee made with half sweet milk, half water, three or four eggs (whipped) poured into it when off the boil; hot toasted bread, with plenty of butter of the finest quality. Serve up this every two and a half hours. The expense is much less than the usual allowance of whisky, and the men work far better, and if care is taken to have the coffee, milk (cream is still better), bread, and especially the butter, of the very finest quality, the men are delighted with it. I am persuaded it would be worth while trying this allowance instead of grog. Giving extra grog gives the men a notion that it is good for them, and perpetuates the belief in stimulants among workmen."

Political.

The following ward officers were nominated by the Republicans of the Eighteenth Ward, to be voted for at the primary meeting: For Alderman, J. Webb, Jr.; Council, J. P. Love; School Board, A. Neave, Sr.; Assessor, W. C. Perry; Constable, J. Loper.

The Republicans of the First Ward, at the meeting last night, nominated the following ticket: Alderman, Dr. R. F. Carver; Councilman, F. X. Reno; Member of the Board of Education, H. Garlick; Assessor, T. M. Brooks; Constable, A. Groves.

The Seventh Ward Hayes and Wheeler Club held an enthusiastic meeting last evening at Turner Hall, to express their feeling over the result of the late Presidential struggle. Eloquent addresses were made by Mr. Amor Smith and others.

Court Cullings.

L. S. Corle against J. D. Jamieson, administrator. Verdict for plaintiff for $448.

The State against William Welsh and Theo. Ferdinand. The defendants were indicted for burglary. They were tried a few weeks ago, when the jury disagreed. This is the second trial. In progress.

Rachel Thurston against Charles A. Scott. An action on a note to recover $1,400. In progress.

The Star Building Association against Berner Kortkamp. A motion to set aside a sale and appraisement. Motion overruled.

Maria W. Sulbach, of Columbus, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. Julius Geyer, druggist, also filed his petition in bankruptcy.

Thomas B. Mallence against Edward Oberly, J. W. Hillis and Charles Sautmeyer. This was an action involving the construction of the section laws with reference to the right of the inmates of the City Infirmary to vote in that precinct. Argued and submitted.

Auna Diehm against the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. An action to recover under a policy of insurance. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,491.

The Baby Show.

The exposition of innocents at Greenwood Hall closed yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, and the mothers of the champion babies are happy. The report of the awards were made from the stage by Harry Gilbert, Dr. P. F. Moley, and Mr. Ben. Eggleston:

The judges were Mrs. Dr. Orr, Mrs. Neolan, Dr. J. G. Orr, Mrs. C. A. Plimp-ton, M. S. Dr. Joseph Garretson, Mrs. Dr. D. D. Bramble, Dr. M. B. Wright, Dr. D. D. Bramble, Wm. McAlpin, Mrs. Dr. Geo. Blackman, Dr. Wm. Jenkins, Dr. C. B. Muscroft, Dr. P. F. Moley, Dr. John H. Patterson and Mrs. Josephine Moley.

The following are the awards:

Second prize, $10 gold piece, awarded to Leggett Chestnut. Age, twenty months.

CLASS C.
First prize, $10 gold piece, awarded to Lottie Wilson, age two years and eight months.

Second prize, a $5 gold piece, awarded to Cora Martin, age two years and eight months.

EXTRA prize in this class, $5 greenback, awarded by Mr. L. Van Vorst, photographer, to Albert Williams, age two years and nine months; residence River-side.

CLASS E—TWINS.
First prize, $20 gold piece, awarded to Ida May and Estela Grace Bollinger, age six months; residence, corner of Baymiller and Everett streets.

Second prize, $10 gold piece, awarded to John and George Woodson, age two years and seven months; residence 665 Sycamore street.

An extra prize, presented by Harry Gilbert, of a five-dollar greenback, was awarded, upon the recommendation of the committee, to Joseph and Bignola Lazarus, age two years and two months; residence, 209 Broadway.

Another extra prize, consisting of a beautiful floral cradle, presented by Cook, the florist, was presented to the beautiful twins who were outside of the regular class, being seven years of age, Eddy and Ida Mame, of 432 Main street.

Another extra prize, a most magnificent floral chair, presented by McDonald, the florist, to the latest baby, was awarded to Jas. Hattiesley, of 743 Front street.

The Class F, triplets, had no premium, but were presented with $5 each.

TWO DOG STORIES.

Hartford Post: A little dog belonging to Mr. Isaac Roberts, of Middletown, for some days past had seen members of the family go to the barn for eggs. Thursday he was seen coming from the barn to the house with the rooster in full chase. The dog went in ahead and deposited an egg upon the floor. He probably thought he could save the family the trouble of going to the barn for eggs in future.

Sacramento Union: A resident of Sacramento is the proprietor of a dog and a cat, which are friends, and appear to have much pleasure in each other's society. They play together, tease, and hunt together. Yesterday they were each given a piece of meat. The dog swallowed hers at one gulp, but the cat proceeded more slowly, the dog meanwhile standing by with a countenance which bore evidence of a willingness amounting to anxiety to help the feline with the job in hand. The cat, however, would not be assisted, but growled determinedly whenever the dog approached too close. The latter hooked on to something for a minute longer, but suddenly was seized with an idea. A few yards distant was a knot-hole at which they had been accustomed to water for rats and mice. Running to this hole the canine commenced a brisk scratching and vigorous barking, as though a whole colony of rats were in sight. The cat ran to the hole to assist in a capture, and the dog completed her strategic demonstration by swallowing the meat.

A WOMAN'S THRILLING ADVENTURE IN A WELL.—Mrs. Elias Davis, living near Wayland, Schuyler County, Ill., went after dark to the well to draw a bucket of water. There being no curbing around it, and the platform icy, she slipped and fell into the well, which was some twenty feet deep. She caught on the stone of the wall before she reached the water, and remained in that position until late in the evening, when her husband, coming home from a visit to a neighbor's house, heard her voice, and by this means discovered her whereabouts. By assistance of the neighbors she drew her out with a rope. She was unhurt save a slight bruise. She took the children and a candle to the door with her, but the wind blowing the candle out, the children deliberately returned in the house and went to bed. There was about ten feet of water in the well, and she was nearly chilled through.

Some of those philanthropists who are devising plans for contributing to the comfort and improving the health of the poor, would find money expended in the purchase of Glenn's Sulphur Soap serviceable in bettering the physical condition of the latter. Depot, CHIT-RENSON'S, 736 Sixth avenue, New York.

Lill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50c. M. W. & F.

Sweetly a poetess sings:
"There's none in all this cold and hollow world, no fount of deep, strong, deathless love, save that within a mother's breast."

It is not possible nowadays for this love to show itself better than by blessing her offspring with the use of B. T. Babbitt's Toilet Soap. Its components are the pure, sweet vegetable oils that need no artificial coloring, and its effect on the skin is velvet-like. A new delight is now added to the toilet and bath.

THE REASON WHY.
Not being able to compete in merit, many of the Sewing Machine Companies are making great concessions in the way of selling machines at a discount, giving large prices for old machines in exchange, and immense commissions to agents. The Automatic Machine is sold purely on its merits, and not by making the above concessions. Those who have tested it say they would not have any other machine at any price. The Company's office is located at 171 West Fourth street.

Important to Western Travelers.
When you visit the City of New York, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. 350 elegant rooms. $1.50 and $2. Elevator, steam, and all improvements. Prices reduced to meet the stringency of the times. The restaurants supplied with the best. Prices lower than at any other first-class hotel in the city. Baggage delivered to and from this depot free. See that those who enter have Grand Union Hotel on the sign. Wm. D. GARMISON, Manager.

ALL NERVOUS, exhausting and painful diseases speedily yield to the curative influences of Pulvermacher's Electric Belts and Bands. They can be easily applied by the patient himself, and with the most gratifying results. Book, with full particulars, mailed free. Call or address Pulvermacher Galvanic Company, 292 Vine street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Jaz2-1yM, V&F, jaz2-1yW-cow

PHOSPHORENE.—Don't place this article in your rat-holes—or place them frequent. If you do you will lose your rats; there will be numerous rat funerals.

AMERICAN COLOGNE.—A splendid combination of the odors of the very choicest flowers, fragrant, delicious and lasting; just the article demanded for every lady's and gentleman's toilet. Put up in sprinker top bottles. Very convenient for persons traveling. For sale by druggists and fancy stores.

ROBACK'S PILLS.—Why are they the best pills in the market? Because they are reliable, safe and efficient. Purify the blood, regulate the liver and digestive organs, relieve the painful headaches caused by indigestion. For sale by druggists everywhere.
